

Introducing WWIN

Many Saskatchewan employers and union representatives are seeking practical ways of attracting and retaining a diverse workforce. They see benefits in having a rich variety of employees, and are committed to developing welcoming workplaces. To serve the needs of these employers the SHRC is launching an electronic information service, the Welcoming Workplace Information Network (WWIN).

WWIN bulletins will be issued regularly. Topics will include:

- recruitment strategies
- retention strategies
- “Be Code Smart” information on how to prevent and address internal complaints of discrimination and discriminatory harassment
- updates on human rights law (settlements, decisions and issues)
- educational and other events provided by the SHRC or its partners

WWIN will direct readers to resources produced by the SHRC and others. Bulletins may include links, announcements, backgrounders and news releases. In this introductory issue, we would like to highlight some existing SHRC resources and promise more to follow in future. Pictured below are (1) Pregnancy, Parenting and the Workplace: What Employees and Employers Need to Know; (2) SaskRights (3) Human Rights for Everyone; and (4) A Guide to Application Forms and Interviews for Employers and Job Applicants. These publications can be downloaded from the SHRC web site at www.shrc.gov.sk.ca or obtained from the Government of Saskatchewan Publications Centre at www.publications.gov.sk.ca.
